

6th Meeting: Chpt. 7 - Becoming Good Soil 9/15/24

DQ1 how important is it to have a plan for your life, faith, work, etc. → how do we get to that?

- ↳ Important to make goals in all areas - helpful to have long-term & short-term goals + writing down the goals
- ↳ set schedule to stay consistent (working out/reading/prayer) → compile into long term success
- ↳ easy to get into lazy cycle where you are just talking abt stuff instead of building realistic path to get there
- ↳ is there even a plan for life - or can you even make a plan, have to adjust to the hard life deals

DQ2 how do wisdom and convenience contradict each other?

- ↳ gain wisdom through inconvenient times
- ↳ if pursuing God to fullest extent - expanding your horizons; becomes a lot harder b/c you are more frequently doing the harder things - not whatever is convenient/fun/easy
- ↳ wisdom can become inconvenient when you don't want to do the hard things / right things / worthwhile things
- ↳ sort of ironically the hard/inconvenient things often make life more convenient/easy/good in the future
- ↳ I'd love to be 30 yrs from now to see how it all worked out, God is using this hard thing / times to build me to who I'll become

DQ3 what can we do on a daily basis to seek wisdom, deliberately?

- ↳ reading + work/social setting → putting yourself in the right uncomfortable situations
- ↳ talking to people → getting feedback/advice; help Δ perspective
- ↳ takes humility, use the resources/people around you to grow
- ↳ reading the proverb of the day
- ↳ asking wife - what can I do better; have to mentally prepare to realize I'm not doing everything right

Prayer Requests: Kenny's meeting w/ lawyer Tuesday, health + continued success for VMI rugby team, ↑ wisdom + discernment, rejoicing in the face of failures - taking them as an opportunity for cont. growth/development

DQ4 how have we utilized failures to our advantage & learned/grew from them?

- ↳ learn from it, try to mitigate it happening again; sometimes a friend/loved one has to help you realize you are doing the wrong thing even when you don't realize it
- ↳ certain failures you just have to take them for what they are - sometimes its inevitable to fail → still take away positives/lesson/memory
- ↳ rejoicing in the face of failure/pain/suffering and being thankful for the opportunity for uncomfortability/growth
- ↳ sometimes harder to see in life - easy to visualize in sports. Easy to be negative/self-loathing but we need to see it as positive/motivation

DQ5 what do we think choosing the "lowest seat" means?

- ↳ taking a more humble approach to a situation; ex. being the father of a family - not necessarily the lowest on the totem pole but just that you do the shittiest job to let others grow/happy
- ↳ take the shit upon yourself to grow yourself, but also to give the people around you ↑ peace/happiness/convenience
- ↳ parable of going to eat w/ the King - don't wanna be the guy who just goes and sits next to the King
- ↳ forwards v backs in rugby - work-horses are necessary to have overall success

DQ6 how can we actually bring the ideas we talk abt in these meetings into our lives + putting them into practice?

- ↳ writing it down + practicing it
- ↳ being critical of your own life - be realistic about where you are + where you want to be
- ↳ think about the guys in the group - values what other guys have taught me → trying to exemplify what it means to be apart of this group of guys
