

8th Meeting: Chpt. 9: Becoming like-hearted 9/29/24

DT #1 Things which matter most should never be at the mercy of things which matter least

- ↳ can't let little things distract you from your goals/what truly matters
- ↳ man is man, or unmade by himself... quote from as a man thinkish
- ↳ in our society things which are less important can get put on a pedestal so we have to stay disciplined in focus towards what we deem important

DT #2 We must pause and soberly ask how well we are living.

- ↳ when it comes to the people that mean a lot to you it's important to be a positive force / good role model
- ↳ hearing hear praises but also what you can do to be better - through different phases of life the "goal posts" move
- ↳ super ambitious young guys are going to encounter continuous "opportunities" to grow/get better
- ↳ be ambitious, always try to achieve but not at the sacrifice of content-ness, try to appreciate where you are at

DT #3

In time, I am learning that my inward life must become greater than my outward life

- ↳ good thoughts → good things
- ↳ hunting, hurricane, → if God didn't want us here he could send several/larger natural disasters to wipe us all out → but he hasn't/doesn't, so what are we doing w/ our short time on earth to glorify God / be a good man/person → be grateful/content - enjoy the journey (present)
- ↳ build relationship w/ God instead of filling the void w/ junk; only through mining will you find diamonds/gold → so as man you must dig deep into the mine of your soul to uncover the great treasures hidden w/in (as a man think:th)

gotta win the battle of the mind

DT #4 Find like-hearted kings living in the same directions. Sign treaties.
When they are at war, you are at war. ← LOTR
↳ the devil will try to tempt you with good looking things, we live in a constant spiritual warzone → conquer your mind before having good practices → gets me fired up → conviction and reminder of who you are and to move in the right direction w/ your boys - comrades

DT #5 I felt the pull of my false self to secure love by coming through for people ↳ easier to tell other people the right things vs doing it yourself

DT #6 Do you think our generation yearns for a cause ↳ Fight club - no great cause but when you watch those heroic movies we can resonate + get fired up w/ having a cause to be passionate about - we need a cause - we need to believe in something ↳ natural thing for men, being apart of something greater than yourself.. whatever that means...
↳ become major problem in our society - moving w/ no direction
↳ good for the soul to be passionate about things - have a foundational tie to the movement; don't want to become sheep/blind follower
↳ a lot of people just want to be someone else instead of forging their own character/path - comparison is the thief of joy ↳ offer your sword and your strength, w/ great discretion and sincere devotion, whatever the cost

DT #7 What can you handle w/ wholeheartedness and integrity ↳ daily tasks/things we know are right/want to do but not able to tackle w/ wholeheartedness + integrity - lets take a step back and ask why

DT #8

The inconvenient truth

- ↳ one thing you can't get back is time - need to be conscious of what could throw us off the right path
- ↳ motivated people are always feeling behind - we need to build our relationship w/ God w/ a sense of urgency + embrace our trials in order to further cultivate our relationship
- ↳ embracing the fire w/ a smile to grow - must understand that
- ↳ hard to feel like I understand what God is telling me → "trust the process"

Prayer Requests: Nate + Caleb at BOLC, mastering the mind, general health + strength to make the right decisions, strength/peace/power/wisdom
