

Meeting 9: Chpt. 10: Becoming a King 10/6/24

discussion
topic #1

the atmosphere produced by a man, much more than his activities, has the lasting influence

- ↳ people will forget the words you said but they will never forget how you made them feel
- ↳ even successful people ~~who~~ who are "shitty" will quickly be forgotten
- ↳ legacy, something that you leave behind → how consistent were you in having a positive impact on others > yourself

DT #2

...become the kind of man who understood and walked in accordance w/ the nature of authority

- ↳ I'm not an authority seeker - but my version of authority would be the knowledge I can bring to the table, advice
- ↳ are you spiritually mature enough to submit to God's authority - cannot be attached to the secular nature of the world → must build a present/living relationship w/ God. Must have the humility to submit
- ↳ men living w/ a conviction, fever, passion that command authority b/c you have cultivated a relationship w/ the living God the light/strength/authority of God emulate from you
- ↳ give respect to get respect

DT #3

...we live in a culture that deeply values self-sufficiency and is steeped in self-determination

- ↳ stereotype of men - have to turn to God/friends/brothers → go to people you can trust; the more manly thing to do rather than charge headfirst
- ↳ asking Q's/for help shows you care & want to do well
- ↳ allowing others to help; personally don't have issues w/ turning to others for help - try to be open + foster an environment where that's okay

PT #4

Where have you come

- ↳ have to appreciate you've come - but w/ in the present and he
- ↳ if you are living & you becomes much more
- ↳ you may have improve want to stop

PT #4

Where have you come from, and where are you going?

- have to appreciate where you are when you consider how far you've come - but when cannot neglect the importance of being in the present and have a present relationship w/ the living God
- if you are living your life in the context of glorifying God it becomes much more satisfying
- you may have improved, but you aren't necessarily where you want to stop

PT #5

Kingdom humility is harnessed strength, not passivity or absence of strength

- the world will try to tell us we are wrong/weak/stupid → cannot let society destroy personal truths of yours; heavy is the head of the one who wears the crown
- the measurement of strength isn't always just who can take the most BS - must also flex + show strength and being assertive about what you know is right - cannot shy away from hard situations (cannot bow to bad stuff in society thru passivity)
- ~~we~~ we must be men that walk under the authority that's been bestowed upon us by God and having an indescribable/incalculable atmosphere around you that uphold the standards and embody the conviction God has placed upon you; stepping up to the plate and commanding authority through nothing more than the presence you bring

Prayer Requests: Strength, Peace, Power, Wisdom, Humility to accept submission to God + bring him into our sphere of influence, pray for our leaders/role models to have guidance from God, wisdom to make the right decisions (big or small),
